NASDAQ sends Freeman a seven-story high salute

October 15, 2013

To commemorate the Freeman School's 100th anniversary, NASDAQ displayed a special congratulatory message this morning on its famed MarketSite Tower in Times Square.

For more than 20 years, NASDAQ has been a dedicated corporate partner of the Freeman School. The company has sponsored the Burkenroad Reports program since its founding and is also a sponsor of the annual Burkenroad Reports Investment Conference. In 2006, NASDAQ donated $50,000 to help restart Burkenroad Reports in the wake of Hurricane Katrina. The company has also hosted numerous tours and site visits for students, including a September 2013 site visit as part of Freeman Days New York.

"NASDAQ is proud to be a partner supporting the program and all the great things Peter [Ricchiuti] has accomplished over the years," wrote Tuan Le, director of

NASDAQ OMX.
