Research Notes: Lynn Hannan

July 8, 2017

Lynn Hannan's paper “Designing a Performance Feedback System in a Multi-Task Environment: Relative Performance Information Detail Level and Temporal Aggregation in a Multi-Task Environment,” co-authored with Greg McPhee of Florida International University, Drew Newman of the University of South Carolina and Ivo Tafkov of Georgia State University, has been accepted for publication in Contemporary Accounting Research. The paper will also be presented at the 32nd annual Contemporary Accounting Research Conference in Quebec City in October. Hannan is the Ernst & Young Professor of Accounting at Tulane University’s A. B. Freeman School of Business.
