Meet the MBA Class of 2024: Jade Barnblatt

January 4, 2023

Jade Barnblatt (MBA '24)

Where did you grow up?

San Francisco, CA

Educational Background

Tulane Freeman School of Business - Double Majored in Management and Marketing with a minor in Sociology

What is a fun fact about you?

I am half Chinese and fluent in Mandarin.

Tell us about your work experience. What you are most proud of?

Analytics and Marketing Intern for the E-commerce multibrand retailer, The Boutique Brands; Intern in President Fitts' Office

Why are you pursuing your MBA?

To build on my undergraduate business foundation, expand my network and further develop leadership skills.

What attracted you to Freeman?

I had a wonderful undergraduate experience at Freeman and heard great things about the program from current MBA students. I hope to achieve a broad business foundation and a deep understanding of my concentration to set me apart in the job market.

Where do you hope to be in five years?

In five years, I hope to have traveled and lived in several different cities where I am able to gain a global perspective in the industry I enter.

What do you like to do in your spare time/hobbies?

Pilates, walk in Audubon Park, explore new restaurants and see live music!

Learn more about the Full-Time MBA program.