CNN: Stocks rise ahead of tech earnings as Nvidia hits $5 trillion valuation

October 29, 2025

Peter Ricchiuti, senior professor of practice in finance and research director of Burkenroad Reports, was interviewed by CNN about the performance of tech company stocks like Nvidia, which is up 54% this year, and Alphabet, which is up 43%.

> “They’ve gone up so much,” said Peter Ricchiuti, senior professor of finance at Tulane University. “They’re very ripe for disappointment.”
