Meet the MBA Class of '27: Samantha Gray

November 24, 2025

Samantha Gray

Samantha Gray is a JD/MBA candidate whose career journey reflects both intellectual rigor and personal resilience. She graduated magna cum laude from college early, then entered law school as the youngest in her class. Her legal studies sharpened her analytical thinking, while her MBA has expanded her leadership and business acumen. Samantha is known for her positive personality, adaptability, and strong work ethic—qualities that have helped her thrive in high-pressure environments. She chose the MBA to broaden her professional toolkit and is motivated to pursue a career at the intersection of maritime corporate law and energy. Known for her collaborative mindset, she enjoys mentoring, continuous learning, and is looking to stay in the South long-term.
